Adding a bit of Eco Fire to your home just in time for winter

November 1, 2016 | DesignUpdate

As the nights are closing in and the temperature begins to drop, it is top priority to ensure our homes are cosy and warm. This is where eco fire places come in. Take a scroll to check out some of the most beautiful fire places and accessories to add that winter charm to your humble abode! The icing on the cake being, you can also sit easy knowing these fire places are eco friendly!
